Wednesday Prayer Meeting

Date: 12.6.2019

Time: 7:45pm

Led by: sis. Agnes Chew

Topic: Church Leaders

Prayer summary 5.6.2019

Topic: Migrants and Refugees

1. Today's migrants and refugees are mainly illegal and have swarmed in such numbers as to become a big problem to host nations in terms of numbers, culture and religion. Pray that
 - (a) there is mutual understanding and cooperation when the host country confine them in accommodations that are over-crowded and are even health hazards
 - (b) they understand and comply with the country's culture, religion and laws – the option is also open for them to leave and go elsewhere if the country does not suit them
 - (c) violence, destruction of properties, terrorists and jihadists etc. have no place in the migration and refugee equation
 - (d) there will be patience as it will take time for their cases to be processed since the majority are illegal and the numbers are huge
 - (e) they are aware of unscrupulous human traffickers whose motive is solely to exploit the situation to earn money, the welfare and safety of their clients are of secondary/no importance.
2. Pray for host nations (especially those with porous borders) that in spite of the huge problems faced they will treat the visitors fairly and humanely and try to win them so as to transform them to be valuable and responsible future citizens.
3. Pray for Embassies that have the authority to grant political asylum; to use such authority with wisdom and not to be used to shield and protect those from criminal prosecution/ extradition
